Master Arthur Napoleon, the wonderfully precocions and, withal, excellent planist, will give the last of his concerts at Dodworth's Rooms, on Tuesday (te-morrow) evening, assisted by various artists. The very remarkable abilities of this lad are well worth public

NEW Music .- Mesers. Seymour & Co., No. 13 Frankfort street, are publishing, in weekly numbers. price ten cents each, twelve pages of Music, sufficiently easy to be within the execution of ordinary piaro-players and of singers. The number before us has selections from Don Giovanni, a ballad by Lover, end a polka. We commend this publication to notice.

-Messrs. Firth & Pend, the interprising publishers of music, have just issued a handsome edition of a fine unbackneyed duct from Donizetti's Martyrs-very effective and not difficult—as sung by Mile. Picco-logini and Signer Steffani. This will be found a capital addition to the usual stock of vocal pieces on ART INTELLIGENCE.-Mr. PALMER, the celebrated sculptor, it is stated, will soon enter upon the department of historical sculpture. He is to prepare for the family of Gov. Marcy a portrait bust of that distinguished statesman; and then a bust of Alexander Hamilton, which he is to mold for the library of Hamilton Fish. During Mr. Palmer's Summer resi dence at Aurora he lost an interesting child, who bore the name of the sculptor's intimate friend, the girted painter Chuncu. This artist has drawn, in memoriam, lake, the setting of a single ctar. [Alb. Eve. Tran.

THE FOURTH WARD SCHOOL BOARD .- The local Board of School Officers of the Fourth Ward have added to their fame. Mr. Samuel S. St. John, the principal of the Grammar School in Rose street, was dismissed by them in secret session on Thursday even-ing, to make room for their Chairman, Mr. Oliver O'Donnell. The salary is $1,500 a year. Mr. St. John graduated at Columbia College in 1828, and chose teaching as his profession. For tifteen years he has been the principal of the school from which he was thus summarily ejected. Perhaps we should not say summarily, as he was served with the following accomplished by, and under the special care of Mesers. | $1,500 in money, nost of it done up in small packages

"DECEMBER, 3rd, 1808.
DEAR FRIESD: I have learned from oundoubted authority of a scheme to dismiss you from your situa-tion and appoint Oliver ODonell in your place. He has taken grade A and intends to resign as an officer on the night you are turned out and then he will be put in your place. It was to have done on last Tues-day night but it was defferred for some reason (un-known to me) until the 2rd night after the election. Now it helyes you to be on the elect and try, and de-you can get in your favor he can influence the two latter. Influence will be best on him as he is as poor as a louse and 25 or 30 dollars will tay him.

This department ought not to be continued at all. In it eighty boys are taught, at an expense of $6,000 per annum-$75 apiece. Within a stone's throw is the Grammar School in William street, the male department of which has more than eighty vacant desks. The continuance of this school nets Charles Davin $3,000 a year, which he gets as rent of the wortuless old Friends' meeting-house in Rose street. It has netted somebody something on the purchase of lots for a new school-building for it, and it has furnis sed some contracts, which, at the last meeting of the Board of Education, were styled "fat." Otherwise, it does not seem to be of much value. The fact, therefore, that Mr. O'Donnell has had little or no experience in schoolteaching, is of slight importance.

RESPENSED OF JOHN-STREET CHURCH .- This timebonoreo memorial to Methodism in the United States, which has been c'osed for several weeks for the purpose of nedergoirg improvements and general repairs, was reopened ye terday with a series of interesting services, attended by crowded congregations. The sermon in the menning was preached by the Rev. J. B. Wakeley, D. D. In the afternoon addresses were delivered by the Revs. Dr. N. Baugs, Dr. J. Kennedy, Dr. J. Floy, Dr. J. S. Mitchell and others. The progress of Methodism and the service which John-street Church bad rendered to the cause was dwelt upon by most of the speakers. In the evening, the Rev. Charles E. Harris preached an elequent ser-men appropriate to the occasion. The improvements in the general appearance of the Church are decidedly meritorious. The wall behind the pulpit desk is beautifully psinted in fresco, and constitutes a semi-circle niche. In the foreground there is on either side a wing, each of these wings conthining a niche for statuary and two Corinthian columns supporting a cornice and balustrade. In the second distance is an arch supported by pilasters. In the extreme distance is an aerial perspective view of the original John street Caurch, the first Methodist meeting house in the United States in which John Wesley preached when on a visit to this country. Surmounting the entire niche is printed the acknowledgment, "Thou God seest me." The old desk bas en removed, and one of a delicate but ornamental taste put in its place. The new desk is covered with a rich crimson velvet cushion, with fringe and tassels, and supported by tresses. The walls of the Church are freecoed in panels. The ceiling has been broken up in the center, and a large lighted dome introduced. This light is one of the most essential improvements. James H which has been made. The window blinds are pointed. PROSPERITY, ADVERSITY, DESTITUTION AND DEATH A SAD CASE .- A death was recently brought to the attention of the Coroners, which, in detail, reveals a sad picture. Some years ago Mrs. Selina Stineon, a widow lady of considerable means, kept a gentlemens boarding house in Chambers street. For a time all went on swimmingly, but at last a reverse of fortune overtook the widow, and at intervals she was comperled to sell portions of her costly furniture to obtain the means of subsistence for herself and son. As her means vanished so did her fair-weather friends, till at length she was, much against her will, compelled to appeal to her relatives for aid. They responded for a time, but finally declined to render her any further aid. Considering herself quite shunned and abandoned by former relatives and friends, Mrs. Stinson resorted to the intoxicating cup, and drank immoderately to drown her grief and forget past sorrows and sofferings.

Latterly Mrs Stinson has had no permanent abiding place, and during the past few months she has addressed letters to some of her once most stewifa-t friends asking for help, which, in some cases, were ree ived with favor and pecaniary aid forwarded to the sufferer. A day or two ago the dead body of Mrs. Stinsen was found lying in the basement of the unneed pied house No. 17 Watts street by the Eighta Precinct Police, who notified Coroner Hills. As the cause of death was uncertain, Dr. Wocster Beach made a post mortem examination. He found the body emaciated and in an extremely fifthy condition and covered with vermin. See had a cancer on one of her limbs, and disease of the liver was apparent. In the doctor's opinion death was the result of intemperance and destitution. The deceased was about 45 years of ago, and a native of Connecticut. In her possession were found several letters, one of which was addressed to a distinguished civizen and merchant of South street, with whom see alleged ste had once been very lotiof Ricevele, Monmonth Courty, N. J., and other oid frience, all of the letters setting forth her extreme that "A gentleman who attended at the Academy of | poverty and seeing for occupiary assistance. Toe fol-

ALLEGED MURDER ON SHIPBOARD .- About 10 o'clock on Friday night, an altercation occurred on board the ship St. Louis, lying at the fast of Choton street, East River, between John Baker and Samuel Wilson, mates of the reasel. The steward states that during the row Baker drew an iron belaying-pin from the rack, and struck Wilson with it on the back of his head, inflicting injuries which may result in his death. The mate, who is now in Keex Market prison, denies the steward's assertion, and says that Wilson was intoxicated, and being very abusive, he was stepping on shore for an officer to take him into custody, when he followed and seized him by the threat. The deck was quite slippery, some water having frozen on that side, and Wilson fell down, striking his bead very heavily. Baker then went ashere for an officer, and on his return found that the man had left. The Police subsequently found Wilson on the pier, with the back of his head crushed in, evidently in a dying state, and quite leaensible. He was taken to the Hospital, and Baker was arrested for felenicus assault. The steward still positively asserts that he' saw the pris ner use the belaying-pin, striking Wilson over the head with it with all his might. Wile n is still alive, but his medical attendants consider his care hopeless.

SHOT BY A WATCHMAN -Coroner Gamble was call-d, on Sunday, to hold an inquest upon the body of Wm. Canning, late mate of the propeller Planet, who was accidentally shot on Saturday evening, while on Pier No. 11 North River, by Wade Richards, a private watchman. The evidence showed that while the two men were talking together, Richards took out bis pistel to show it to the mate. The latter took the weapon, and, after cocking it and talking a while, rethe hammer down when it exploded, and the ball from it entered the heart of the mate, who fell dead. The above facts were elected before the Jury, and they rendered a verdict in accordance with them, exonerating Richards from blame. The deceased was a native of New Jersey, 38 years of age. He resided at Cam-

ANOTHER DESCENT UPON LOTTERY SHOPS .- On & complaint made some days ago at the Mayor's Office, sgainst Swan & Co.'s lotteries, Sergt. Berney, mustered his forces on Saturday for another descent. The lettery business, notwithstanding all the efforts that have been made by the Mayor and his police, seems to be as active in the city as over, but is carried on much

The headquarters of the main lottery were broken up in Ann street last Spring, when several arrests were made, but the weakness of the Courts suffered it to result in no public good. The principal agent, S. T. Dickinson, pleaded guilty before the Recorder, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $250. Subsequently he was let off on promising to abandon the business, and on paying only $40. The poor and ignorant peo-ple succeptible to the lettery-policy delusion, have since been victimized by thousands, and many of them have been brought to abject poverty.

About 5 o'clock Satorday afternoon Sergeant Bir-ney, with several officers, took different routes from the squad-room and simultaneously met at No. 146 Folton street, the headquarters of Swan & Co.'s lottery, and made a descent upon the office, arresting Alexarder Florence and W. J. Morton, then in charge. Tiese two they detained in the office, and awaited the arrival of the agente, it being about their time to return from their daily round among the policy shops of the city. Each agent as he came in was quietly caged, to await the appearance of the next customer. Beside those arrested in this way, two runners were ar rested at Jersey City Ferry, where they had been for telegraph slips, as they came over the wires from the Delaware offery. On the latter the police found a book containing Swan & Co. s tolegraph "cypher," in which the Company received its dispatches. This cypher consists of over a million figures ingeniously arranged so as to represent words. The prisoners arrested gave their names as follows: Alexander Florence, W. J. Morton, G S Saford, Addison Pinn, James Hanlon, William Smith, James Carrol and Isaac them, a large amount of policy slips, as well as about as returned from the policy shope. The business done by the lottery in this city is thought to average $1,400 or $1,500 per day. About $1,000 of the money in packages were marked " Wood, Eddy & Co."

The books of the cencern were not at the headquarters. They are supplied to be kept out of the ity. The police also had warrants for Bunjamin Wood, Samuel Swan, George P. Eddy, Charles Moran, S. T. Dickinson, and Oris A. Bills. Dickinson, who is principal agent for Swan & Co., notwithstanling his promise to the Recorder, was absent from the office, and was said to be cor fined to his house by sickness, Ben Wood was looked for, but not found, being about, it was said, from the city. The others could not be

An officer will sent to Augusta, Georgia, to arrest Swan. If apprehended he will be brought to New-York on a requestion for trial. The above prisoners were all taken to the squadroom, City Hall, and by order of City Judge Russell, they were, after the search, allowed to go on parole until Monday morning, when they will be required to give ball to answer, The police consider this the best arrest they have made in point of farnishing proof against the lottery, We are informed that warrnots have been issued, on complaint of Charles J.
